Subject: 1st Public Hearing

Tom

Friday April 1st, Senator Jimmy Holley, was bound and determined to have a public hearing on congressional redistricting. He knows far more than anyone else on how to have a public hearing since he has been in the AL senate for a couple generations. Sen Bryan Taylor is a new guy, easier to work with, but was commandeered for the exercise. Rep Booth went along for the ride. Here is the recap:
